Because he has worked for and with us, because he has given generously of his time and wisdom, words are a poor substitute with which to express our sincere respect and admiration for this man.

Therefore, we the Senior Class of 1969, proudly dedicate this 25th anniversary issue of the yearbook to a man who has been closely associated with our class, whose ready smile and wit often inspires laughter from those around him, Mr. Terry Boyer.

Dedication

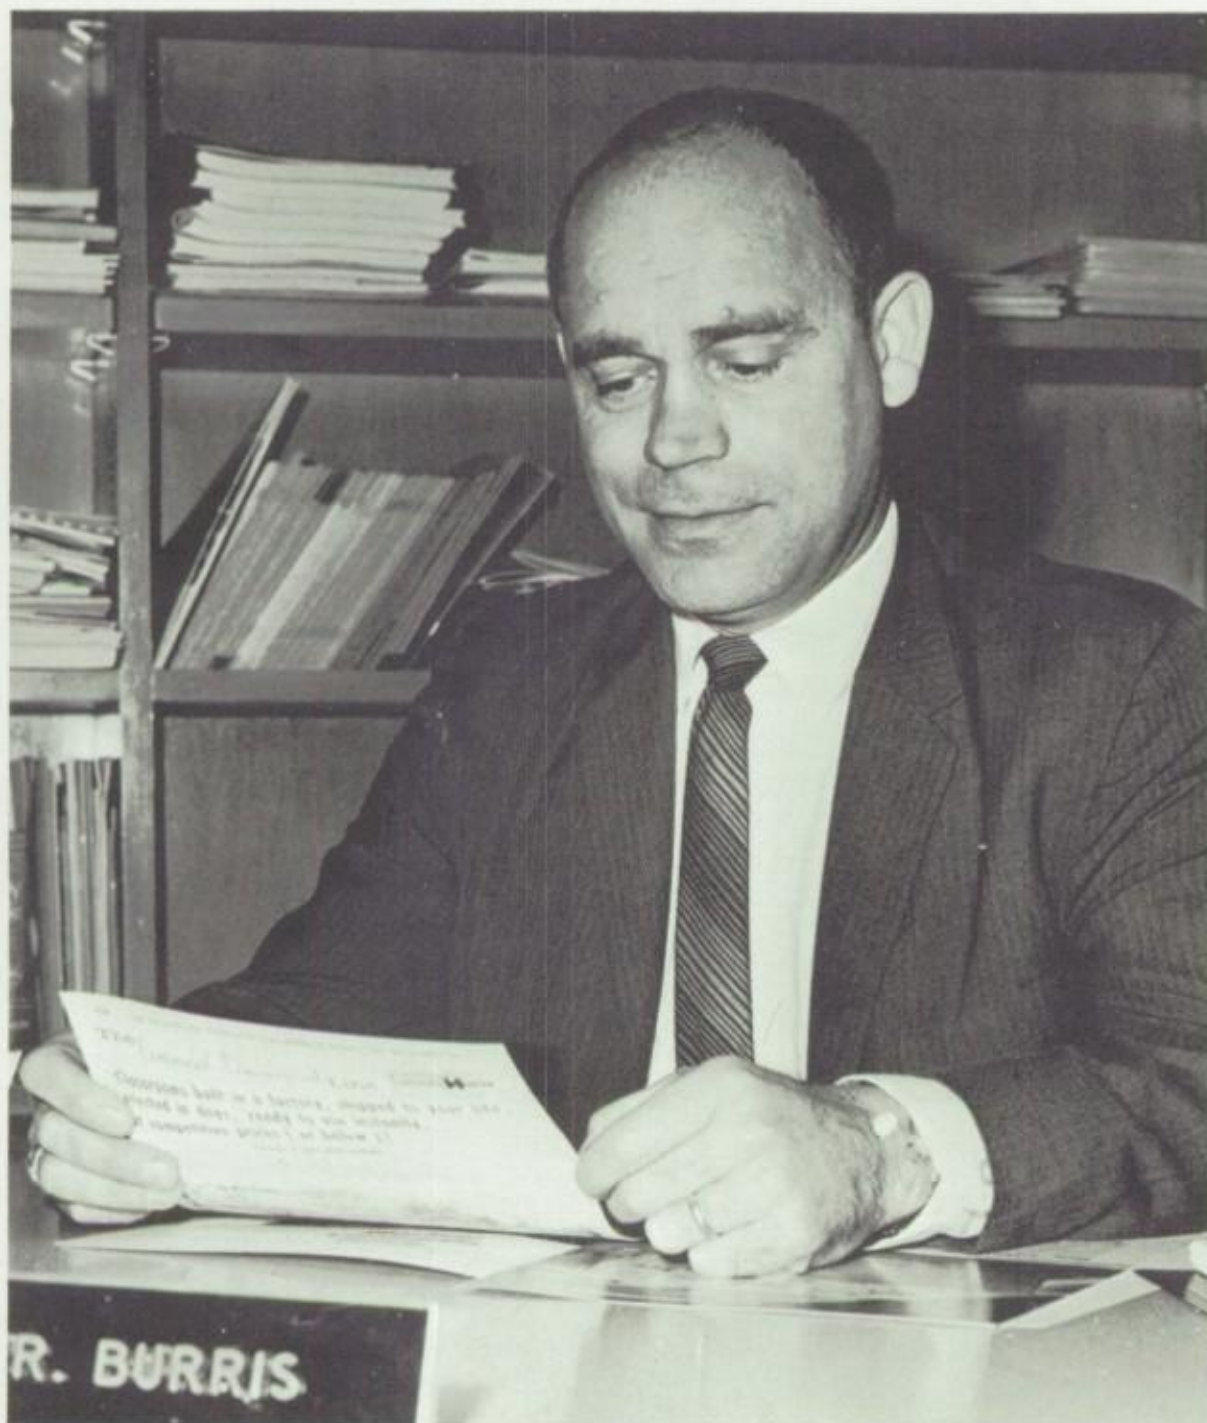

Millersburg Area Board of Education

Our many thanks go to the MILLERSBURG AREA BOARD OF EDUCATION for their commendable work in promoting the progress of this — our fine school district.

Seated: Mr. Miller, Mr. Christian, Miss Cummings, Mr. Rissinger, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Romberger, Mr. Troutman; Standing: Mr. Shaffer, Mr. Knarr, Mr. Burris, Mr. Bailey; Absent: Mr. Boyer

Mr. Earl C. Burris
Superintendent

This is the silver anniversary for the Susquehannock. For the last twenty-five years seniors, like this competent staff, have labored and utilized their ingenuity to produce a published record of their school experiences. This challenge has again been admirably accomplished.

Every need is a task for someone. Each of us can do something which must be done, lest it go undone and the world be poorer. Perhaps no program is greater than that of helping others to see the needs and to know their own abilities to meet those needs, and helping them to develop the motivation that will make them great.

If the statement of the sage be true that "education is not causing a man to know what he does not know, but causing him to do what he could not do," then we should check to see if we have been educated. Granted great motivation, great deeds will surely follow. There is plenty to do in this world and there is a place for you to make it better for posterity. I am optimistic concerning the 'Class of 69,' and I am certain that thru their motivation great deeds will surely follow.

Earl C. Burris
Superintendent

TO THE CLASS OF 1969:

Until this time your lives have been planned to a great extent by parents and teachers, but soon you will enter yourselves into the adult life. It is my hope that you have acquired useful knowledge, sound virtues and good habits so you will be able to achieve the goals you have contemplated for life.

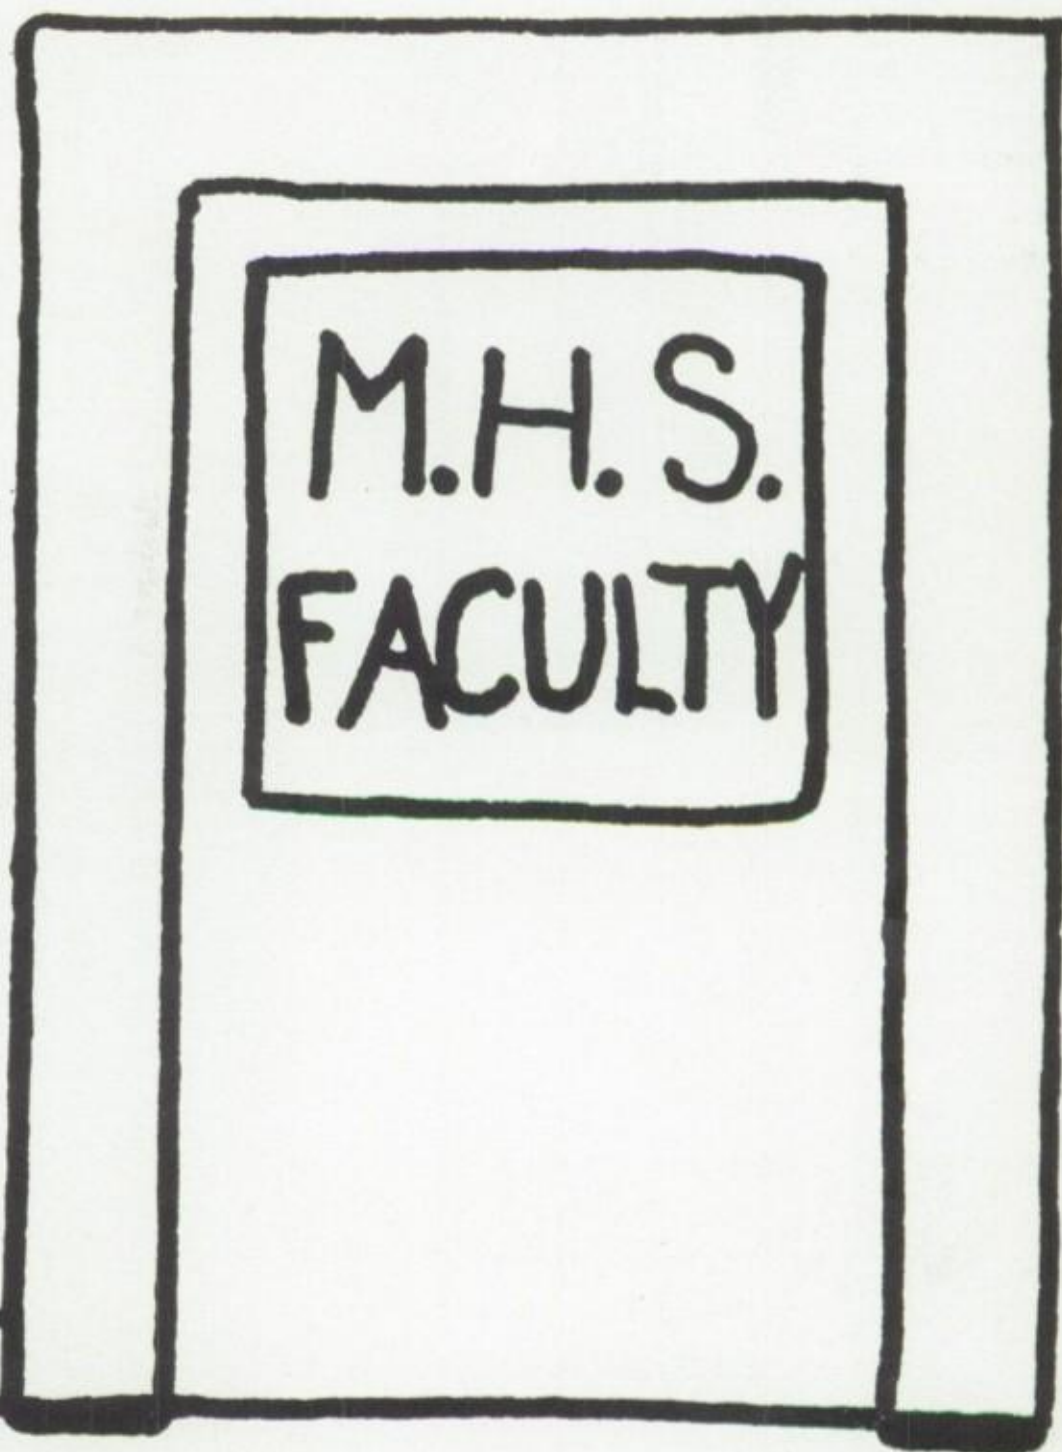

My congratulations to the Class of 1969, upon the publication of this yearbook. It is your mirror of high school years and will quickly help to recall the many memories you have accumulated during this time of life. My best wishes to each of you as you travel life's road.

In Memoriam

HE IS JUST AWAY

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead — he is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there;
So think of his faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead — he is just away!

Riley

Class Will

We, the class of 1969, would like to take these next pages in which we will dedicate our most prized possessions to those whom we feel deserving of them.

As a whole, the sixty-niners would like to bequeath their dignified manner, their unlimited store of knowledge, and their angelic dispositions to the class of 1970 who, we feel sure, would like to follow in our footsteps and be so well-liked (?) by their teachers!

Now, let's see what each one has unwillingly decided to leave behind so that tradition cannot fade.

First we see Karen Barnard who is willing her unfailing ability to blush to Debbie Hoke. Bob Barry is leaving behind his paints and brushes for the next art editor of the yearbook. Doris Barry has decided that her dimples seem just right for Betty Kissinger. And . . . Dennis Bellis has condescended to leave Mike Lawley some of his smart and gross remarks. Next comes Joan Blasser who thinks that Patty Warfel is deserving of her gymnastic grace and technique.

Linda Border and Jody Leitzel will the walking canes that help them get around town to Nancy Stine and Jeanette Teter.

Linda Boyer bequeaths her petiteness to Sandy Kimmel. While . . .

Mike Boyne's wicked laugh stays behind with Donald Harris.

Donna Brady confides that her coal-black hair would be perfect for Cathy Cunningham and Francine Brink whispers that her quietness is a trait belonging to Patty Alleman.

Ken Bucher wills his high soprano notes to the next person able to match him.

Linda Bucher would like her hair-coloring techniques to go to anyone wanting a change.

Going on, we see that Deneice Chubb is entrusting her fall to Sue St. Sing, just as Rita Dwan is giving her bottles of eye liner and mascara to Arlene Lenker.

Pat Etzweiler bequeaths her super curly hair to her brother Gene. (who else???)

Imperturbable Deb Faber has an idea that her witticisms would fit Deb Miller to a T.

Wayne Faber says that his BEAN SOUP can go to the next lowest homeroom in the magazine campaign.

Dennis Fulk thinks that Brad Shipman doesn't get into enough trouble so his ability to create chaos wherever he goes is Brad's forever.

Carol Geist is giving Charmaine Haine a chance to work out her muscles by willing her the heaviest flag in the color guard and Cathy Geist is going to get Chris Koons in Step with her drill flag.

Don Geyer keeps insisting that Jim Etzweiler needs his cadillac as a match for his Packard. How about it Jim??

Ed Goodling's fast fingers go to anyone that can match him.

Zoe Graff, despite protests that she is really quite shy, has given her flirtatious manners to Jan Lehman.

Next is Linda Hamilton whose chorus gown is being remodeled for Deb Saltzgiver.

Rich Hepner's bag is saving money on haircuts and this he wills to Lynn Hoy.

Naturally we couldn't pass up Louise Hoffman's cackle which will echo on from the throat of Deb Miller.

Mike Hoffman wills his sticky fingers to other molasses lovers.

And isn't it odd that Greg Hoy's many faces will go to Karen Matter. We wonder if they practice together.

John and Rahn Keefer in one breath have informed us that their likeness suits the Alleman twins well.

Meanwhile, Don Kessler and Bob Troutman have come to the conclusion that Russ Boyer and Kent Rowe could make good use of their poker chips and hot cues.

Wes King wills her pompons and megaphone to that fireball Carla Geist.

Mysterious Rod Klinger is planning to save his moustache and wax for the next teacher that wants to grow one.

Fairlee Leitzel's cookies are to become the monument of the Home Ec. Suite just as soon as Tom Lenker and Dave Witmer will their rosy cheeks to Jane Hollenbach.

Barb Marks and June Troutman are true-blue friends and we think that it might have rubbed off on Esther Marks and Patty Martz.

Bill Martz and Debbie Weaver have to add that the successors to the cafeteria chores shouldn't hesitate to ask them for pointers.

Carol Miller, who has lost count of the number of times she's fallen off her chair, points out that Sandy Chubb can have her coordination. She doesn't need it??

Lynn Novinger's neat long hair is to become the trade mark of Larry Horchler for the coming school year.

Eric Mortenson and Sandy Troutman's electric red hair would look quite becoming on Darlene George and Rodney Underkoffler.

The school would be pretty lost if Tony Ochenrider's "dunking" ability didn't pass on to Dennis Meyers just as it would if Sharon Osman didn't agree that her baton and majorette boots should go to her sister Wendy.

Dave Peiffer has laid down his horn so that Lonnie Goodling may pick it up and carry on.

Paul Martz wills his brooms to Craig Teter along with the crick in his back.

Rena Riland agrees to will a year's supply of flowers to Glenda Oxenrider.

And Bonnie Rissinger contends that her wardrobe is a match for that of Wanda Collins.

Although Doug Rutter can't bear to part with his ducks, he thinks he might let Jeff Daniels take a crack at his drums.

Scott Seiler has turned up out of the blue to remind us that Fred Bellis would know what to do with his constant absences.

Sandy Shade's lightweight sneeze is to become private property of Terry Shrawder.

Rich Shaffer wills his character to Stanley Snyder.

Of one thing we are certain, Marsha Shappell can't fail when she wills her big mouth to Sondra Graeff.

Greg Shomper wills his newspapers to Paul Oxenrider.

In the meantime Wanda Snyder confides that her short hair would look good on Linda Smeltz.

Chris Sunday wills his truck to Keith Erdman (it holds more people than a jeep) and Jeanne Thomas has her gorgeous eyes reflected in Jill Shrawder.

Bob Tobias had decided that the cafeteria could use his bucket of chow.

Connie Troutman bequeaths her long nails to Jane Schlegel and now Dawn Troutman wills her needles and thread to Connie Hoffman.

Janet Troutman hears a hint of her zany giggle in Nancy Sutch and Jere Troutman says that no one can eat a sub in one bite like he can so that tradition will have to retire.

Ah! Here's Alvaro Vera, that groovey exchange student, who wills his ability to speak English to the next exchange student.

Joe Williams has sex appeal that only Steve Fulkroad can match and Randy Witmer's broad shoulders fit only on Lynn Dockey.

Barb Witmer wills her blonde hair to Lorraine Adams exclusively.

Larry Wright gladly gives up his Weis carts to George Fulton.

Class Will Continued:

And last but not least, Kerry Rothermal and Gerry Zewe allow Craig Crotty and Dave Gemberling to carry on their nutty tendencies. Will there never be peace and quiet?!?

Most of all the sixty-niners would like to leave their thanks behind with the teachers for "bringing us up right."

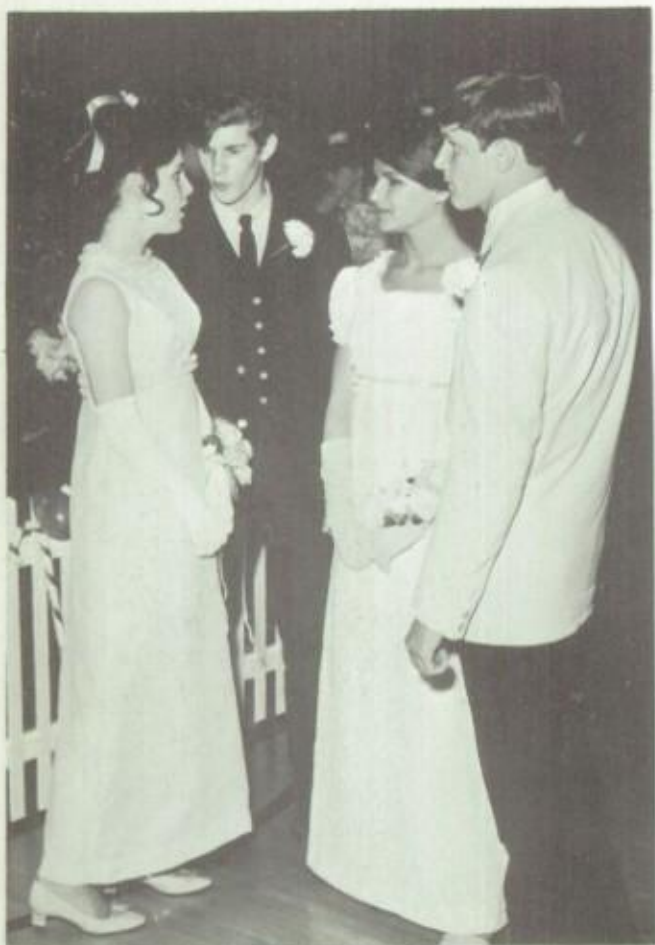

And now that we have made perfectly certain that our tradition will be carried on by our heirs, the Senior Class of 1969 can graduate in peace.

In honor of our tip-top Indian team!

Special Education

Cecelia Barzagha was one of our two foreign exchange students here at M.H.S. this year. Cecelia is fifteen years old and hails from San Paulo, Brazil. She came to Millersburg a few days before Christmas and was here for three months. She was a welcomed change around good old M.H.S. this year. She made many friends during her short stay and I am sure that we will not forget her.
